

Tim Ragan

November 5, 2017

Timothy Allen "Fast Timmy" Ragan slipped out of our presence right into the presence of the God he loved and faithfully prayed to for 33 years!

Tim was loving & generous, loyal & strong, a mischievous prankster, always laughing & sharing his smile, a big talker, a warrior, always a big kid who had a smile and a word for every child. He fiercely loved his family, was an "animal whisperer", and a wild man who loved riding screaming motorcycles.

He is survived by his 3 children: Cole, age 20, Leah, age 14 and Reese, age 12; mother Elaine Sanford Ragan, father Michael "Mickey" (Anne) Ragan, brother David (Lyndsey) Ragan, sister Amanda (Dean) Ragan Fore; grandmother Loretta Sanford, grandfather, Elvin "Stan" (Joyce) Sanford; nephews Noah Collier, Lucas Fore, & Winston Lewis; nieces Madeline Lewis & Paiton Butler; aunts Star Sanford, Crystal "Mimi" (John) Gee, Lisa "Teecie" (Stephen) Jennette; uncles Doug (Joy) Sanford, David Killman & Elvin "Sandy" (Jamie) Sanford, Jr; cousins Jerome Malone (deceased), Jermaine Malone, Jasmine (Delio) Evangelista, Jerome Malone, Jr, Zachary Malone, Jayden Malone, Jeremiah Malone, Layla Corley, Luciano Evangelista, Joshua Killman (deceased), Michael (Brandi) Sanford, Shelby (Chance) Imel, Elijah Jennette, Elizabeth Jennette, Ryleigh Sanford, Makenna Sanford, Madilynn Sanford, Tyson Imel, & Brenleigh Imel; a host of extended family members and hundreds of friends.

“ Hello, the reason why I'm writing this message is because we are talking to people about what the Bible says, and telling them that there is a hope for people that have pasted away. The Bible says in John 5:28,29

"Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

As you can see in this text the people in the tombs are in gods memory. If you want to know more you could visit our website jw.org

“ Tim was such a special person. He was misunderstood in many ways too. I'm grateful for the lifelong 30 year friendship we shared. His laughter and smile was contagious. He loved hard and took life as a head on challenge. He would leave me posts and texts always saying I was like a sister... I wish I had one more sister hug to hold on to forever.

I wish we would of gotten to hang out in this past Halloween when you called. I'd do anything to turn back and say come on a finish trick or treating with us instead of I'll call you back. I'm going to miss our talks and laughs. ..jokes and memories.

I know your at peace now.

Stay sweet up there and smile down on all of us.

Love you always!

“ Tim left a forever mark on my heart. I will never forget all of the laughs and smiles you pulled out of me and even on my worst days. You were and always will be my big brother. I miss you so much and knowing we will never share the laughter and jokes anymore hurts so bad but knowing you are better now than ever before and not fighting and hurting anymore makes it easier to deal with. I love you Tim. R.I.P and ride hard bid bro.

“ You poured your heart into everything you did. You left a mark on everyone you encountered. You were a "fighter " in every aspect of the word, Everyone always knew Tim Ragan was gonna move any mountain that stood in his way. You can take off the gloves and rest now Timmy...the fight is over, you're in the presence of the Lord!! I know your up there now telling some amazing stories of all the incredible encounters you had. We will all be reminiscing too, until we meet again. See you later my dearest friend.

Ragan family, I hope you know where you stand in my heart. You are my family, I never felt like an outsider. Elaine you are the toughest woman I know, the only woman who could raise Tim Ragan's butt. Mickey, Tim so looked up to you and cherished every moment he had with you working on bikes or cars in the driveway. Davy he was always so protective of you and your heart, he always wanted to make sure you were right there no matter what. Amanda he bragged on you every chance he got, he was so proud of you! That's the Tim Ragan I will always remember and never forget!
