“ Van was such a fun loving person, who always could find the humor in any situation. We shared many good times over the years. He loved people and was always interested in sharing with them. Van was a good friend, a faithful husband and a genuine Christian man.

“ Way back at Lipscomb, Mary spoke so positively about her friend Van. Years later, they met again and built a relationship in which love, caring, and support for each other stood the test of time. I enjoyed and looked forward to conversations with Van. He was a wonderful man who made this world a better place.
To Mary and all of his family, may God give you peace during this time as you adjust to Van no longer being here. His life here and those memories of him are an inspiration for us all.

“ My deepest sympathy to Van's family, especially to Mary and Van's children. Mary did all she could and beyond caring for her dear Van. Know Van is restored fully to good health and no longer suffering resting with his Lord and Savior whom he witnessed continually.
