“ I remember Vergil as my favorite teacher at Overton. I loved his awareness and enthusiasm. I haven't seen him since high school but I read and enjoyed most of this letters to the editor over the years. He was always on the money and he drew the right conclusions. He was a wonderful man.

“ My days at Hume-Fogg Tech (“73) were a lot brighter because of Mr Stevens. He had this great sense of humor at the right times! He was more laid back than Mr Hancock and brought balance to the office. He is truly one I will always remember from my days at Tech. Rest well Mr Stevens!
