“ I wish I knew just one memory of Luno to share, but there are so many. The way they always reached out to others to help create or sang and joked and made sure that no one felt left out... they, to me, were and always will be the very heart of Make Nashville and the greater maker community. No words could ever express how talented and giving they were and how hard it is to imagine a future without them.

Maverick, Varia, if there's anything at all that can help - food, art supplies, a ride to the store, someone to come wash dishes, no matter how menial it seems, please reach out and ask. You're not forgotten and I don't know what I can do or say during such a painful loss, but if there's anything you can think of you'd like help with I'll do my best.

Sam, Make Nashville.

“ I am at a loss to hear the news about "them." Violet is such a memory tattooed to my brain since she was a wee little girl. I'll never forget when she would tag alongside her beloved elder sister, Varia. I thoroughly enjoyed teaching art to both of these beautiful sisters from kindergarten through fourth grade. And, Maverick, what an amazing Daddy you are. My sincerest condolences to ALL of the family. I am so saddened and hurt for you all, especially amidst this holiday season. May God keep you in His thoughts and prayers and cover you in Angel wings. I pray that "they" no longer feel any pain.
Yours truly,
