“ I remember meeting Vivian (I believe my mom called her Miss Vivian) on several occasions. We were graciously invited into Myrna's home for Thanksgiving dinner a few times and on other occasions...

Nothing but wonderful memories... truly made me feel like family.
Prayers and love sent to the family, may God be with you.

“ Charlene and Linda Fleming I was shocked and appalled to see that the two of you were listed as estranged in the original obituary. Words can't describe how I felt to see that the obituary had been edited and you weren't even mentioned in the edited version! My heart goes out to you and your family for the loss of your loved one and the disrespect you have been shown. I will definitely miss seeing the pictures you both posted, over the years, of the good times shared with Vivian. She truly loved and enjoyed her time spent with you. May God give you both the strength needed to get through this difficult time. God knows your heart and so does Vivian.

“ My deepest sympathy for your loss of Miss Viv .. so I never personally met her I loved hearing about all of the fun and love that she shared with her daughter Charlene . If somebody has to take down this post it's really sad I feel for them that their pain they are suffering requires them to be mean to others . God bless your angel in heaven and know that she is looking down on all of you “ Charlene, I met your mom one time as we spent a fun Saturday together. She was sweet and kind and welcomed me with open arms into her group of friends and family. So sorry for your loss and yes she is whole again in more ways that you can imagine. You will be with your mom again and she will hold you in her loving arms.

“ Charlene anyone who knows you knows how special your mom was to you. It takes an evil person to omit their own sibling from an obituary of a parent. Praying for you and your family during this difficult time.

“ Dear Mom,
My heart hurts. I Love you so very much, and miss you terribly. I can't imagine a life without you, but I know you are in a better place. No pain and you have been made whole again. As you have joined your mother, I too will join you when God calls my name. What a joyous reunion that will be. Although my name has been omitted entirely from this Obituary, Family and Friends know my heart belonged to you, as you are the love of my life. I promise to forgive them and I will pray for their salvation.
Bye Mom for now. All the Glory to God you are whole again and I am at peace.
Your 1st Born, Your Loving Daughter,
Charlene Brewer Wild
