“ I am so deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Wayne from this life. I worked with him many years ago, and fondly recall his easy way of making us laugh. He brought joy to many, as I'm sure he did in his personal life. I did not know he had served our Country, however, and for that, I will always be grateful. May God's blessings of comfort and peace be with his family throughout the difficult, grieving process. Sincerely, Peggy Rittenberry

“ What a great guy and good friend. I have really fond memories of Wayne and John Hopwood joking around and playing pingpong, playing golf with Uncle Toney and Herman Eldridge. And he really loved Glenda. He will be missed tremendously.

“ What a great guy you were Wayne. While working with you at IKG for 17 years not a day went by that I didn't enjoy you calling me (and so many others) "PARTNER". I will always respect you for being genuine and your never ending patriotism. Good Bye PARTNER. God Bless you.
