“ Bill came into my life when I was about 9 yrs old, he eventually married my mom & was my step dad till I was 22 years old. Bill was a real good dude & I remember him being so so funny, always cracking jokes. He took in me & my baby brother & loved us & provided for us like we were his own. I hate that we didn't stay in touch after him & mom split up. RIP Bill thank you for everything you did for us over the years & for the love you gave us. Fly High love you, Jennifer

“ Billy and I were good friends for many years. I remember the trips we took to St Louis to watch the Cowboys play the Cardinals. Also the times I took him with me on my vending routes. We always had lots of fun and laughs. RIP my brother.

“ Patty and Carol, I am so very sorry for your loss. Losing your big brother is so hard, I know. Billy was like a second brother to me! I know Billy and Michael are giving God a run for his money when their not tossing a baseball back and forth to each other. I can hear Billy calling my name, "Terri Lynne"...the name that family or dear friends that were also our family called me...all the Freeman family called/call me by my first and middle name! I began too realize just how precious hearing "Terri Lynne" was to me, as my "family" has moved on to be with God and I hear it less and less. My love, thoughts and prayers are with you, Patty and Carol!❤️

I'm so sorry for your loss. Bill was such a good friend and neighbor to me. I'm relieved that he is not suffering anymore . Heaven has become a more inviting place, knowing that we'll see him again. My thoughts and prayers are with all of the family, especially Patty and Carol and Randy.

I am so sorry for your loss. I had the honor to be Bill supervisor before he retired; he will be missed.

Bill and I worked together for many, many years in Pretrial in the Jail. We used to love to argue with each other but always remained friends over the years. I treated him like a little brother since he was much younger than me. Always trying to give him advice that he totally would ignore. He and I both had a love of dogs and would talk a lot about what our dogs were up to. And how we both would grieve for each other's loss of our babies when then would pass away. Missed him when he took his retirement, but always stayed in touch with him through the years. Bill will surely be missed; he had such a big personality. Sorry for your loss ladies. I know you did the best you could to keep him comfortable in the later part of his days here.
