“ *I remember Spanky from the year approximately 1990 thru 1999. His Mom coached my daughter in softball at Shelby Park (NGSL). EJ his sister played on the same team and was really good friends with my daughter. Spanky was always there helping with the ball equipment or whatever was needed. I still remember his sweet smile when he was over my house picking up a washer and dryer. I said you sure have made a nice looking guy. But then you always were so sweet. He flashed me his cute smile that was exactly as I had remember from when he was a small boy. Prayers for your whole family sweet Man. Jessie Hooks and Hal Meadows
