I met Mike in the mid 60's.. thru my cousin Steve Lakich, he was one of several litton guys who played football in front yard of my aunt and uncle .. Joe and Germaine Lakich! I always loved visiting when all the neighborhood included my uncle in their sports!! Mike always had the best personality .. never met a stranger, and that big smile was so special!! I always called him pulley, only last names for the team!!! I'm so sorry to hear of his passing, we lost a great man, and Heaven has gained the most precious angel!! Fly high pulley!!! Thanks for the memories!!

Mike was my "double friend." We were both Isaac Litton alumni and Sigma Nu fraternity brothers. He was a great guy with great stories and he will be missed. Hal Gibbs...
