“ Melinda, This is Tom Williams and my Dad of course is L.S.Williams we were customers and friends of your Dad,you and the entire Omohundro family for many years. We just heard about his passing today from Larry { dont know his last name } but he worked for your dad and now has a shop on Gallatin Road. We most certainly would have attended services for Bill had we known about his passing and are saddened by losing him.

Bill was the best mechanic on the face of the earth and a fine Christian family man. The Williams family sends send our condolences.

“ We are sorry for the loss to the family and friends of Bill. We will remember him always as Bill O. or Skeets. We lived a couple of doors down from his shop with other family living in between us, for quite a few years. Our oldest Daughter (Stephanie) got to know him well too and he was always trying to find her a sucker or some candy when she was with us at the shop. He did not want her to feel left out. He has bailed us out of trouble many times when we had car issues or got stuck somewhere over the years. He always had such a good personality, smiled and laughed a lot. We would tell funny jokes & memory lane stories. Growing up Bill & Shirley had to keep me and Debbie out of trouble best they could.

We will always love you Bill O.

Your cousins Diane & Flip Anderson & our family.

“ Sherry, Melinda, Bonnie and Mary Ann, I was so sorry to hear about Skeeky's death but it was good he didn't know anything nor suffer long after his stroke. Bonnie called him Skeeks but my brother Bev, and I always called him Skeeky except in front of strangers and then I tried to call him Bill. It was our grandmother, Lillie (Harkreader) Omohundro that gave him that nickname and Ike his. He and Ike were experts in their automotive businesses and George and I used to enjoy visiting with them when we took our automobiles to them as did my father too. Daddy had a slight wreck once and they called him "Crash Gooch" which he just chuckled at but they got his car fixed.

Savor your memories and know Skeeky lived a long and good life.

Lots of love,
Your cousin, Ginny
