“ Grandma Wilma took me under her wing from day one she was always there if I need someone to talk to. Had many talks! Could always count on getting the truth from her too . Has always been a part of my life. I have so many good memories, especially the race track ,she will always be loved, missed dearly..and always remembered as my favorite Grandma.Rest In Peace

“ From the very first time I met Wilma, I felt like part of her family. I'll never forget all the great times we had playing Rook, Yahtzee, and other games around her kitchen table. She was a fiercely loving mother to all her sons, and adored her entire family. Rest in peace, Wilma.
