“ To Wilson's loved ones. We know how close you all were as a family and we are so sorry for your loss. While nothing we can say will make you feel better at this time, we want you to know that we love you all and you will be in our prayers.

You are hurting so much right now but God will ease your pain through the comfort of His Word and His Spirit. He promises you will see him again. Revelations 21:4 says “And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”

The funeral today was beautiful and such an honor to Wilson. He really was a wonderful man. How touching to see him covered by the flag he loved and fought for while the Marines' Hymn played. He would have been so proud.

To my brother Wilson, I love you dearly and it hurts me to know you're gone. I look forward to our whole family reunion in Heaven.

“ Mr. Wilson was my brother, Bubba Thompson's, first baseball coach back in the late 50's, early 60's. He was such a great mentor and lead by example. He touched so many young boys lives and their families. I haven't seen him in years but he touched everyone. We were so blessed to know him.

“ Very sorry for this loss. Wilson was a wonderful many who ALWAYS put his family first. His support and love for his sister (my grandmother) helped her through so many hard times. Him and Betty have been there through everything...espiecally through the death of my great grandmother Ethel. They helped financially and emotionally when others turned their backs. He also was full of words of wisdom and advice even when I was choosing the name for my son. You are gone but never forgotten. Semper fi!
