“ I offer my deepest condolences for your loss. Nothing can fully prepare us for the loss of someone we love. However, God promises us that there will come a victory over death. The Bible repeatedly speaks about the elimination of death (Isaiah 26:19, John 5:28-29, Acts 24:15) and God’s promise of everlasting life (John 17:3). So the battle against death is not a hopeless one. When that day arrives, death will truly be brought to nothing. Never again will anyone wonder, “Does death end it all?”

“ Aunt Winona was more than an Aunt, she was also like a mother and a friend. She had a deep compassion for the wild birds and squirrels that flocked to her feeders daily and enjoyed watching them all. She also had a heart for stray cats and made sure that they didn't go hungry. She loved golf, the outdoors and good entertainment. She loved and cared for all in her family and will be deeply missed by all ! As you join your beloved Bill, know that you will remain in our hearts, lives and memories. We love and miss you.
