

Yeang Chan

August 10, 1940 - May 3, 2026

Yeang Chan, age 85, passed away in Nashville, Tennessee. She was born in Kampong Chhnang, Cambodia, to Douch Chan and Pil Men, and lived a life full of strength, love, and care for her family.

During the time of the Khmer Rouge, Yeang Chan fled Cambodia with her children and came to the United States with very little. She worked hard to build a new life for her family. She showed great courage and strength in starting over and never gave up, no matter how difficult life was.

She loved gardening, spending time with her family, and watching her grandchildren grow. She was known for her warm smile and welcoming spirit. She was kind, generous, and always willing to help others. She gave what she could, even when she did not have much.

She is survived by her children, Loat Prum, Khly Prum, Phen Prum, Phan Srey, and Phouen Prum; 26 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, Douch Chan and Pil Men; her husband, Loun Prum; her siblings; and four of her children.

Yeang Chan's life was built on love, sacrifice, and strength. She gave everything to her family and helped create a better future for them.

May she rest in peace.

សូមឲ្យវិញ្ញាណរបស់គាត់បានសុខសាន្ត

May her spirit find peace and happiness.

សូមឲ្យវិញ្ញាណបានទៅកាន់សុគតិភូមិ
